Watermelon Day at Fair Sept. 22; To Choose Queen

Maids Contest as Usual Will Arouse Township Interest

FREE WATERMELON

Coronation of Queen, and Feast, Second Day of Fair

Although there will be no Watermelon Festival this August the event will be celebrated with a good deal of its past glory on a special day set aside during Fair week.

The Southwest Arkansas Fair meets here September 21-26, and on Tuesday September 22, the Fair authorities have arranged for a Watermelon Show and Feast.

A Watermelon Queen is to be chosen as in past years, and the usual coronation ceremony will be observed at the Fair Grounds. Interest in the maids' contest is expected to be just as keen this year as in seasons past. Popular voting will determine the victorious maid in each township, and one of the maids will become queen for Watermelon day during Fair week.

A feature of the day—Tuesday, September 22—will be the giving away of ice-cold watermelon to all persons who attend the Fair that date.

It is believed the Watermelon Festival and the Fair may be successfully combined in this manner, of which this year will be a test period.

Fair officials announced Monday that the premium list for the 1931 show will be ready for distribution to the public within two weeks.

Cotton Sells Off

Nearly One Cent

Price Sinks During Week Ending July 10—Buying Is Light

MEMPHIS.—(U. S. Dept. Agriculture)—The cotton market during the period July 4th to 10th witnessed wide price changes with quotations July 10th about 15-16c per pound lower than those July 3rd. Demand for spot cotton was said to have been only fair during the past week with the volume of sales of spot cotton rather light. Cottons mostly inquired for seemed to be in the better white grades in the lengths of 7-8 inch up to 1 inch inclusive.

On July 10th the average of the quotations of the ten markets for middling 7-8 inch was 8.78c, compared with 9.71c July 3rd and 12.10c on the corresponding day a year ago. Trade interest is now largely centered on new crop developments.

On July 8th the Crop Reporting Board of the Department of Agriculture estimated the United States cotton acreage in cultivation July 1 at 41,491,000 acres, which is a reduction of 10 per cent compared with the 45,930 acres in cultivation on the same date. Estimated acreage in North Carolina decreased 18 per cent, in Texas 8 per cent and in Mississippi 4 per cent.

No report of probable production is made by the Crop Reporting Board until August. At that time the production forecast will be based on the forecast yield per harvested acre applied to the acreage in cultivation on July 1st less ten year average abandonment in east state after that date.

According to the Weather Bureau for the week ending July 7th warmer and than normal weather prevailed rather generally in the cotton belt. In Texas progress and condition of cotton averaged fairly good but moisture is now needed in much of the northern two-thirds of the state; plants are small but fields are generally clean. In the Carolinas weather conditions have been more favorable and cotton is making good growth with bloom reported as far north as North Carolina. According to the New York Cotton Exchange, forwardings to mills of the world of American cotton to July 3rd amounted to 10,400,000 bales, compared with 12,300,000 last year and 14,600,000 the year before last.

The world's visible supply of American cotton according to the same source on July 3rd amounted to 5,690,000 bales, compared with 3,400,000 last year and 2,400,000 the year before last.

Hoover Postpones Return To Capitol

The Cool Weather Causes President to Remain at Rapidan Camp

LURAY, Va.—(A. P.)—President Hoover Saturday postponed until Monday his return to Washington from his Rapidan summer camp to enjoy the cool weather that favored his week-end excursion.

A lengthy conference with Vice President Curtis occupied part of the chief executive's day. Despite disquieting reports of financial conditions in Germany, the president was said to have received no official communications from the embassy in Berlin. Acting Secretary Castle of the State Department also was at the camp.

Mrs. Hoover, accompanied by several of her guests, tramped for an hour through the mountainous country surrounding the Rapidan river, but the president remained at the camp.

Mrs. Frank Connor, wife of a Washington newspaperman, who was injured Friday when the car in which she was riding with the presidential party overturned, was resting comfortably in a Washington hospital. She suffered a broken collar-bone and severe shock.

Despite heavy rains Saturday afternoon, a number of the guests at the presidential camp rode horseback, one of the most popular diversions of those who visit the presidential retreat.

Rain Falls Here Monday Afternoon

Half Hour Downpour Helps Central Part of Hempstead County

Sweltering heat which started to return to Hope Monday after a vacation of several days was driven back about 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon when a light shower began falling over the city and apparently extending north and south for several miles. It was still raining at 2:45 p. m., and some relief must have been given central Hempstead county farmhands, where continues to need rain, but corn continues to need rain.

Monday was cloudy practically all day, culminating in the afternoon rain, with threats of continued showers Monday night and Tuesday.

Rocky Mound Here Tuesday For Game

Hope Loses to Stamps 6 to 4—County Team Is Next

Hope's Junior League baseball team was defeated by Stamps 6 to 4, in an interesting game last week.

The local boys are showing considerable improvement, however, since the formation of their team two weeks ago. Their principal games thus far have been against Blevins, one game here and a return engagement in Blevins.

Hope will play the Rocky Mound team at the Fair Grounds here Tuesday, a contest which is expected to push the local boys to win.

No. 67 Paved Hope to Fulton; Blevins Gravel Half Done

Paving Now Curing; to Be Opened to Traffic Last of Month

BLEVINS SOON DONE

New Gravel Route to the North End of County Ready August 1

Concrete paving was completed between Hope and Fulton on No. 67 Saturday, by Earl W. Baker & Co., Oklahoma road contractors, and traffic will probably be turned into the new road the last week in July.

In announcing completion of the project, however, R. B. Stanford, district highway engineer, cautioned against depending on the finished road before it is formally opened, as a dirt detour now being used at the Fulton end would be impassable in the event of rain.

Ready Last of Month
The State Highway Department is encouraging use of the old gravel route of No. 67 for two weeks longer, until the concrete paving has cured. However, about 10 miles of the new road is being used by a good deal of traffic, which cuts over to gravel 67 three miles out of Fulton.

The concrete reaches from the foot of the approach to the Fulton State Toll Bridge to the west corporation line of Hope. Through co-operation of County Judge Luther F. Higginson and Mayor John Vesey and the Hope city council, right-of-way has been guaranteed on West Third street from the corporation line to the city paying at the Hope Steam Laundry plant. The highway department has widened this to a standard street, and has graveled the entire four-tenths of a mile connecting the two pieces of pavement.

Blevins Gravel Rushed
Engineer Stanford drove up to Blevins Monday morning, inspecting the graveled of No. 28, Hope to Blevins, which is about half finished. Incredible speed is being made on this project, three miles being graveled out of Hope, and four miles out of Blevins.

Seventy-five trucks are working on the job, and the road will be completely graveled by August 1. Announcement was made last week that concrete had been finished on No. 67 between Gordon and Arkadelphia, to be opened within two weeks. With completion of the Hope-Fulton road, No. 67 will have concrete paving open August 1 all the way from Texarkana to Arkadelphia, except the finished Birmingham slag road from Emmet to Prescott, and the dump for concrete work which is being constructed from Hope to Emmet.

The Hope-Emmet dump is virtually complete, work now being rushed on five concrete bridges and the concrete-steel overpass above the Missouri Pacific tracks a mile east of Hope.

State forces are completing the construction of a fine new bridge at the dangerous Hope-Columbus-Washington fork, north of Hope. The bridge is on a sharp curve, and slopes to conform with the race-track proportions of the road at that point. Engineers practically have the bridge completed except for filling in a few feet of approach dump at either end.

Texan Perishes at Flaming Oil Well

2 Others Burned Seriously When Gusher Spurts Burning Petroleum

OVERTON, Texas.—(A. P.)—One man was burned to death and two others injured critically when the Vitek Oil Company's No. 2 came in afire Sunday.

Joe Wedemeyer, 22, of Willow Springs, Gonzales county, was enveloped by the flames, and his body burned to a crisp.

Paul Vitek, 40, owner of the well, standing near Wedemeyer at the time, although badly burned, escaped alive. J. H. Anderson, 28, of Cooper, Texas, also was burned, but was expected to recover.

Wedemeyer's body was recovered from the flames by J. H. Sadler, a Texas ranger. The well spouted oil and flames simultaneously. The crew was engaged in swabbing out the well with water preparatory to bringing it in when fire from the boiler touched off gas. The area was blanketed by flames.

Vitek and Wedemeyer were walking along together when the fire broke out.

Coolidge Visits Old Homestead

Returns to Farm With Mrs. Coolidge to Spend Vacation

PLYMOUTH, Vt.—(A. P.)—Calvin Coolidge, back in the home of his childhood, strolled Sunday among the peaceful scenes and mellow friendships of his youth.

The former president, with Mrs. Coolidge, arrived Saturday for his annual vacation in the Coolidge homestead, where eight years ago, the late John Coolidge administered the oath of office as president to his son.

A few hours after his arrival, Mr. Coolidge pulled five pump trout from the pond of an old schoolmate "Herb" Moore, about a mile from the Coolidge farm.

The former president's catch provided interesting news to the community, and particularly to that group of friends who used to "josh" their fellow townsman because he fished with worms for bait. Mr. Coolidge used flies on his hook Saturday and confided, afterward, to Moore that he doesn't "go plugging for them any more."

"We call it plugging fish with worms for bait," Moore said. "And no real fisherman would do it." There was no foreboding as the former president greeted old friends and neighbors in the village. It was "Howdy Ed" to his cousin, Edward J. Blanchard, and "Hello Azro" to Azro Johnson, a neighbor of the Coolidges for many years.

Mr. Coolidge hasn't any plans for his vacation, except to look over the farm. However, Plymouth residents know exactly what he'll do. He'll spend many hours fishing, and many more in chatting with old neighbors. He'll go on automobile rides about the country-side, and he'll read a book or two. But those who know him best predict he'll draw his greatest pleasure from the walks he takes over paths he trod before he set out on the trail that led to the White House.

Girl's Conviction For Court Slaying Reversed Monday

New Trial Granted Ruth Spence in DeWitt Murder Case

PEN BONDS UPHELD

$200,000 Issue Sustained When Act Is Declared Valid

LITTLE ROCK.—(A. P.)—A new trial was ordered by the Arkansas Supreme Court Monday for Ruth Spence, sentenced to five years in prison for the killing of Jack Worle in a courtroom at DeWitt where he was on trial for the slaying of her father.

Monday's session was the last before the summer recess of the supreme court.

The high court found several errors committed by the lower court to be sufficient cause for reversal of the girl's conviction.

The supreme court upheld an act of the last legislature authorizing the State Penitentiary Commission to issue $200,000 in bonds to discharge the commission's outstanding obligations. The penitentiary bonding act had been attacked in chancery court here as vague and indefinite as to the amount of the bonds authorized.

Aged Man Is Held on Child's Charge

71-Year-Old Prisoner Accosted Girl, 9, Who Sold Magazines

A man named Young, who gave his age as 71 and said he was from Bastrop, La., was arrested early Monday on complaint of a 9-year-old girl who sells magazines on the streets of Hope.

Young was to be arraigned before Justice Hundley at 3 Monday afternoon, on a charge of attempted rape. Hope officers were puzzled to know whether the prisoner was sane or not. The little girl told police the man persuaded her to walk from the business district to the L. & A. tracks. Some small boys followed them, and a store-keeper called the police, who caught Young running down the L. & A. right-of-way.

Bombing Planes to Sink Ship as Test

Old Vessel to Be Used as Target For the Experiment

NORFOLK, Va.—(A. P.)—Under plans worked out by the War Department, the bombardment group at Langley Field within the next few weeks will conduct experiments off the Virginia capes to determine the practicability of sinking surface craft by bombs dropped from airplanes.

The vessel selected for the test is the Mount Shasta, a vessel of 4,729 gross tons. She has been tied up with the idle fleet in the James river since 1922. She was built at Oakland, California in 1917.

The bombing is to take place probably within the next two weeks, or just as soon as the quartermaster service of the army can make arrangements to have the Mount Shasta towed from her berth in the James river to a point outside the capes where the aerial bombers will attack her.

About 45 local grocers and their employees had accepted the invitation for Tuesday night, according to report's Monday noon, and the total attendance is almost certain to reach 60.

Restaurant Owner Wounded By Thug

B. D. Akers of Prescott Shot Through the Neck in Attempted Hold-Up

PRESCOTT.—B. D. Akers, elderly restaurant owner, was wounded severely Sunday night in an attempted holdup near the Prescott hospital, on West Third street. A robber appeared from behind a garage, commanded Akers to raise his hands, and immediately shot him in the throat, the .32 caliber bullet passing entirely through the neck.

Akers was unable to describe his assailant, who ran after firing the shot, without taking Akers' money. Physicians believe Akers will recover although the bullet passed through his windpipe and severed a nerve, paralyzing his left arm. Akers was en route home, and carried the day's receipts of the restaurant.

Crisis Precipitated by Germans Converting Wealth to Foreign Currency

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON.—(A. P.)—Secretary of the State Monday declared essential in a report to the Department of State Monday from Ambassador Sack in Berlin.

President Hoover is returning from Rappahannock to devote his entire time to the German crisis.

BERLIN.—(A. P.)—Some aviators banks not otherwise affected in the Darmstaedter crash because involved Monday in the general demand for hard cash at the day were on.

Chancellor Brüning's government in an appeal to the German people asked that they keep their heads in this time of financial distress and not make things worse by losing confidence in the Fatherland.

BERLIN.—(A. P.)—Directing all its energies toward saving the nation from financial ruin, the German government Monday issued an emergency decree taking over guarantees of the $20,000,000 Darmstaedter and National Bank, which suspended payments because of the drain on its resources by "constantly rising demands for foreign currencies."

The run which ruined the Darmstaedter extended in some degree to other banks Monday morning, and to prevent the panic from spreading further the government closed the Stock Exchange for Monday and Tuesday.

The Darmstaedter and National one of the five biggest banks in Germany, announced suspension of payment after a directors' meeting at 2:35 o'clock Monday morning.

The government guarantee was announced several hours later, when the suspension of payment became a fact. It had been rumored before the closing that the government planned to maintain the bank in the event its directors were unable to do so.

Up to Private Bankers
NEW YORK.—(A. P.)—Financial relief for Germany's domestic situation, which came as an aftermath to the publicity surrounding the war-debts moratorium, must be furnished by international bankers rather than governments, Ogden L. Mills, acting secretary of the treasury, said Sunday night.

"Through the president's debt suspension program the German government has been relieved of the critical strain due to its international financial obligations. That is the only direction in which our government has either the opportunity or the authority to intervene," Mr. Mills said.

From Washington, Acting Secretary of State Castle disclosed that ample American finance was available to Germany if opportunity is provided for it in the regular channels of international finance. "Obviously any plan for a banking solution of the situation must originate from the banks which are on the ground, and it is my understanding that our bankers are prepared to consider assistance in any effective plan of relief that they may evolve," the assistant secretary said.

France Isn't Worried
PARIS, France.—The German domestic difficulty following on the heels of the war debts moratorium leaves the French capital unworried. The Paris bourse is closed until Wednesday, celebrating the 14th of July—France's Independence day—and there is a wide-spread feeling that before business is resumed again America or some other power will come through with enough gold to stop the run in Germany.

The French now deny having required any political favors for a loan to Germany. Clement Moret, head of the Bank of Paris et Pays Bas, are reported to have told Hans Luther, Reichsbank president, on his recent visit from Berlin that a French loan to Germany would be difficult under

Mother Thanks Jury For Giving Son Back

The mother read an account of the incident in news dispatches and found her missing son in a Dallas hospital at the point of death.

Woodward's parents were divorced when he was four years old, and the father married again, taking the son with him.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting
Itching, bleeding, protruding piles are caused by bad circulation of the blood in the affected parts. The parts become weak, flabby, almost dead. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause—that's why salves, suppositories and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's prescription, HEM-ROID, succeeds because it removes congestion, restores circulation, heals and strengthens the diseased parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record of quick ending even piles of long standing, that Ward & Son says one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your pile agony or money back.

MENA, Ark. — Judgment for $8821 is asked in a suit filed in Polk county chancery court against the Barham and Baker company, former Ford agents in Menla. The plaintiff is Morehead Wright, trustee for the Union Trust company of Little Rock. The trust company asks that its judgment be made a first lien ahead of those claimed by the Farmers and Merchants Bank, H. N. Fincher, Standard Oil company, Citizens Finance company, J. H. Bratcher, W. R. Chamberlain and W. E. Taylor, state bank commissioner, all of whom are made parties to the suit.

any circumstances. Finance Minister Pierre Flandin is said to have told the German chief banker that the French government which executed a loan to Germany would be promptly overthrown by the Chamber of Deputies—at least for the present.

German Public Alarmed
American observers abroad believe the fundamental problem confronting Germany is the restoration of confidence in the mind of its own citizens. Although the war debts moratorium solved the immediate crisis for the German government, it created a new crisis among the moneyed class of the republic. Fanically regarding the future, depositors began converting German credits into money of America and other nations.

The increase in this foreign exchange, handled in gold, carried the Reichsbank's gold reserve down close to the 40 per cent minimum necessary to cover German currency. A similar movement in gold at the Bank of England last week, however, was blamed on France, the English bankers alleging that France was converting its English credits into gold to cut down the British reserves as a retaliatory measure for the British position in forcing France to grant Germany a war debt moratorium. The upshot of this was that England turned definitely away from France, and has joined the United States in the same camp with Germany, resolved to help the Teuton republic work out its financial problems.

Division of Chickens Leads to Shooting

TYLER, Texas. — (AP) — A dispute over division of a flock of chickens resulted Saturday in the shooting and serious wounding of Jack Craft, 20, at the farm of John Armstrong, north of Lindale.

Armstrong surrendered to officers after the shooting and was charged with assault with intent to murder. Craft told officers he went to the farm to get some chickens he owned. He said Armstrong objected to his taking them and shot him in the back. Tom Lyons, Lindale city marshal, who at Craft's request had accompanied him, was a witness.

Summon Labor Leaders Into Mine Conference

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — Labor leaders of the bituminous coal industry were summoned Friday to a conference here to supplement Thursday's meetings of mine operators.

The gathering will take place Monday. It is intended as a further effort to find a common ground on which all interested elements of the industry may be called together for a discussion of its ills.

The operators Thursday said they could see little prospect of beneficial accomplishments at a general meeting. Secretary Donk issued Friday's call.

Hoyt Starts For Philadelphia A's

Former Yankee Star Wins First Game, Allowing But Six Hits

Waite Hoyt and Roy Mahaffey set the Boston Red Sox down in a double-header Sunday and put the Philadelphia Athletics still further in front of the American League race.

Hoyt, former Yankee star who went to Detroit, and was obtained from that club by Connie Mack on a waiver, held Boston to six hits, winning the first game 7 to 2. Hoyt, as the experts said he would, delivered for a club that gave him good support in the field and at bat. He was formerly the ace of the Yankee's pitching staff, but he did poorly for Detroit, which is not in the running this year. Hoyt's acquisition by the Athletics brings additional strength to a pitching staff already carrying such famous figures as George Earnshaw, Robert Lefty Grove and Rube Walberg, all of whom have won from 12 to 15 games apiece this season.

Mahaffey won the second game for Philadelphia 6 to 2. Jimmy Fox got his 17th home run of the year.

Chicago and Cleveland broke even, the Indians winning the opener 10 to 4, and the White Sox the final, 7 to 5. Detroit beat the St. Louis Browns 7 to 2. Washington lost ground to the league-leading Athletics by losing to the Yankees 10 to 4, which put the Senators a full six games behind.

In the National League, St. Louis fans broke a World Series attendance record by turning out 45,000 strong to see the Cardinals and the second-place Chicago Cubs divide a double series. St. Louis dropped the opener 7 to 5, but won the final 17 to 13. Wild Bill Hallahan had the first game won until he blew up in the seventh inning, allowing five runs, three of which resulted from a homer by Hack Wilson with two men on base.

Cincinnati captured a double-header from Pittsburgh, 14-7 and 6-5. Boston won and lost against Brooklyn, the Dodgers taking the first 7-4, and the Braves winning the final 4-3. The New York Giants won both ends of a double bill from the Phillies, 13-6 and 9-4.

"YOU MEAN YOU TRADED A WEDDING PRESENT? YOU YOUNGER GENERATION!!"

"WHY COME OVER YOU TWO? YOU LOOK AS GLOOMY AS A RAINY MONDAY."

Good—they've got to be good!

Fred and Adele Astaire in Broadway's new musical hit, "The Band Wagon"

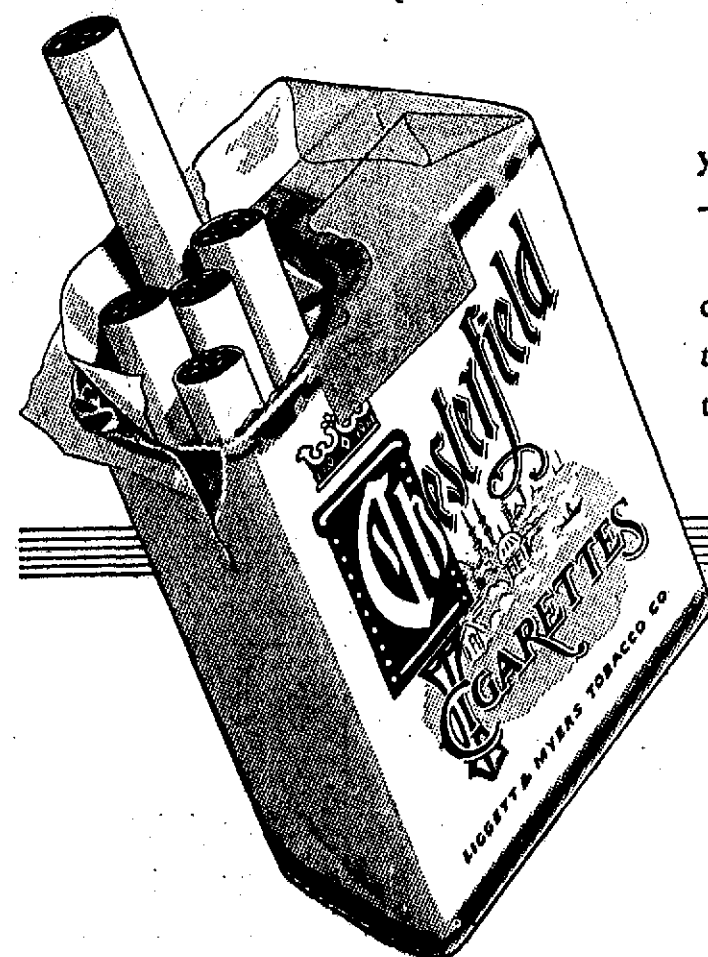

Darn good—you'll say!

Everybody wants a mild cigarette. And when you find one that is milder and tastes better too—you've got a smoke!

Chesterfields are so much milder that you can smoke as many as you like. They're made to smoke milder. And you know they taste better the moment you light up. They're made to do that too! Mild, ripe, sweet-tasting tobaccos—the best that money can buy. That's what it takes to make a cigarette as good as Chesterfield. And the purest cigarette paper!

Every Chesterfield is well-filled. Burns evenly. Smokes cool and comfortable. They Satisfy sums it all up!
